Golden beach fest in November stars to be roped in this time

Monday August 29 2005 12:52 IST

BALASORE: For the first time, the Golden Beach Festival will be organised in November.

This was decided at the first preparatory meeting convened by the Chandipur Beach Festival Committee here recently.

It was decided to hold the festival from November 11 to 13 as the tourist flow to this part of the State is at its peak during the month. The festival used to be held in February.

This time, the committee aims at wooing some foreign tourists too.

Various programmes including sports competitions, cultural extravaganza, sand art exhibition and painting competitions will be highlights of the festival.

The organisers are also keen on roping in a few cine stars, eminent singers and dancers from different states to add glamour to the festival though the focus will be on promoting and popularising the culture and heritage of Balasore district.

The committee also decided to go for aggressive publicity, which has been lacking so long.

It is planned to install hoardings informing major attractions of the festival in major cities of the State.

This apart, it was decided to improve the infrastructure facilities at Chandipur, which is one of the major beach resorts of the State.

The meeting was held under the chairmanship of Collector Tenjem Wapang Ao. Former BJP MLA Jeeban Pradeep Dash, secretary of
