A-I flying offer

Friday March 24 2006 11:02 IST

BHUBANESWAR: Air India has promised to introduce a flight between Bhubaneswar and Bangkok or Malaysia from the next winter to facilitate tourist inflow to the State.

Air India regional director P P Singh assured this to Tourism Minister S N Patro at a meeting here on Thursday.

Making a presentation on the tourism potential of the State to Singh, the Minister said the State badly needs better infrastructure for air connectivity to attract more foreign tourists.

Apprising Singh of the vision document prepared by the Government for tourism development, Patro said this would be possible if there are more international flights connecting the State.
